Daylight savings celebration - Thursday 10 October 2024

To celebrate the start of daylight savings, many Peakies went upstairs to enjoy dinner after walking with a $10 voucher for dinner. Happy days, less walking in the dark.

Adelaide City Bay run fun run - 13 to 15 September 2024

Only 3 Peakies entered this fun run. They were Anne Wilson, Jan Coghlan and Jenny Howard. Well done.

Social event 18 October 2024 Trying out waffles at Mr Max in Riverwood

Eleven Peakies enjoyed large waffles at Mr Max at Riverwood. The consensus was that they were delicious and very big. The recommendation was to share one or get the strawberries on skewers (Jenny D did this). Jan and Anne did share one; they were smart. The rest of us were very full.

WOW - Wednesday 4 September 2024

“Kuringgai Wildflower Garden was a delightful WOW outing today. Our public transport system worked like a charm. Laughter and the beautiful outdoors lifted all our spirits. Thanks Jennie Howard for organising such a fabulous day.” Di Craven, photos and words from Facebook.

WOW - Wednesday 2 October 2024

“Our WOW outing to the Camellia Gardens got off to a damp start yesterday so we grabbed a hot drink indoors and waited for the light rain to stop.

We then took a leisurely stroll around the gardens, which were full of colour and sparkling due to the rain.

Lots of ducks were frolicking in the various ponds or waddling around the grounds.

Had a delicious lunch back at the Tea House before we all headed home.

Anne Wilson celebrated her birthday on the day, I wish I was as sprightly getting around as my namesake. “ Text and photos from Anne Mattison on Facebook.

Reminder: It is less than 40 days until our Christmas party! Sunday December 8 2024 at midday.

The cruise leaves from Bass & Flinders Point. It is off Rocky Point Rd & the last right hand turn before Captain Cook Bridge. It is where the Sans Souci walks start & finish. We must be there & ready to board by 12 noon.

There will be prizes to win !!!!!!!
Please wear Christmasy clothes & get into the spirit of it.
Look forward to seeing you all there.
